Liberate work

Had enough of meaningless, useless or exploitative work? How about this?

- ❯ being free from stupid systems of management and workplace hierarchy
- ❯ making work fit your life, not the other way round
- ❯ keeping collective control over the surplus you create
- ❯ being equal with your co-workers
- ❯ developing skills and capacities you didn't plan, or always wanted
- ❯ being part of the worldwide movement for decent work
